Picture More Time

PictureMoreTimePD.com

Understanding the impact of

OFF and dyskinesia—Motor complications in Parkinson's

SURVEY OVERVIEW:

775 people surveyed | 527 people with Parkinson's and 248 care partners

Co-sponsored by PMD Alliance and Adamas—Fall 2020

OFF and dyskinesia are highly prevalent among surveyed participants.

Including people with PD and care partners

76%
Experience OFF Time

48%
Experience both

51%
Experience dyskinesia

OFF and dyskinesia alter everyday plans of care partners and people with Parkinson's with both OFF and dyskinesia were forced to alter their plans due to motor complications.

76%

41% say OFF and dyskinesia lead to feelings of ISOLATION and LONELINESS

45% say OFF and dyskinesia make SOCIAL INTERACTIONS DIFFICULT

OFF and dyskinesia can be stigmatizing

People with Parkinson's with both OFF and dyskinesia indicated that dyskinesia can be stigmatizing and prevents them from doing things they love.

51%
Feel uncomfortable & nervous with some activities, such as driving or carrying a grandchild

49%
Feel social hesitation

43%
Feel embarrassed